in lieu of flowers

The phrase in 'lieu of flowers' does not mean that there will be no flowers at a funeral. Rather, it means that the family have decided to limit floral tributes to immediate family only and others, if they wish, are invited to make a donation to charity.

Asking your family and friends to make donations to Paul Sartori instead of sending flowers is a wonderful way to make a difference to local people who have terminal illness and who are supported by our 'Hospice at Home' service which serves Pembrokeshire.

Such gifts may be encouraged in an advertisement or funeral notice using the phrase;

'In lieu of flowers, the family asks for contributions to be made to the Paul Sartori Foundation.'

We appreciate that these donations are made at difficult times and we want the process to be as simple as possible. Therefore, if you have lost a loved one and would like donations sent to the Paul Sartori Foundation, please ask us for a supply of our donation envelopes. These are suitable to be placed on the pews at a church or crematorium. Your funeral director will be pleased to advise you.

There is space on the donation envelope for the name and address of each donor, which enables all to be written to and thanked afterwards. There is also space for a 'gift aid' declaration for individual donations. This is very important, as every donation which is 'gift aided' can raise extra cash for the hospice.

Alternatively, please ask for cheques to be made out to the Paul Sartori Foundation and posted to 31 Haven Road, Haverfordwest, Pembrokeshire, SA61 1DU.

If you do this, please remember to include the name of the person in whose memory the donation is being made also the name and address of the person making the donation.

When we receive 'In Memory' donations, we send a thank you letter to the donor as well as an acknowledgement to the next of kin (if requested and address provided).

If requested, we can also send the next of kin, or family member handling the funeral arrangements, a complete list of the names and addresses of the donors and the grand total received in memory of your loved one.

Another way in which you can make a lasting difference in memory of a loved one, is to have a collection conducted at the funeral service.

To make things easier - use our donation envelopes! We can provide you with as many as you may need. Just call us on 01437 763223 or email us at enquiries@paulsartori.wales.org
